

Bundeena

Features

The Bundeena was built in Lavender Bay in 1946 and is a true historical icon having performed many tasks in a rich and varied life. It can accommodate a maximum capacity of 89 guests. But for the comfort and safety of guests, numbers are limited to 80 guests.

Bundeena has a Tasmanian Huon Pine Licensed Bar with bar stool seating. A harbour view side bench seating with comfortable cushions and buffet benches. Covered seating at the rear of the vessel with Harbour wide views. An open outdoor smoking area at the bow, central entertainment area, Bluetooth compatible music system. Lastly, separate ladies and gents rest rooms.

The Bundeena now cruises the iconic Sydney Harbour providing guests a unique mix of old world charm, modern amenities and of course, that world-beating view.
